Beautiful book, with Ruby Bridges story told from a child's perspective. Includes portions with far more detail than a picture book, but also has shorter passages perfect for reading by younger ages. The combination is great for providing just right information, and leading to asking more questions, and searching out more answers.

Bridges, Ruby ...

Surrounded by federal marshals, 6-year-old Ruby Bridges became the first black student ever at the all-white William Frantz Public School in New Orleans, Louisiana, on November 14, 1960.

Through My Eyes: Ruby Bridges, Margo Lundell, Margo ...

It was the first time that a black child was allowed to enter an all-white school. At the time, Ruby Bridges didn't know why there were barricades and police everywhere or why people lined up to yell horrible things. She was just a first grader who wanted to go to school like everyone else. But Ruby couldn't go to school like everyone else.
