and Satan for our souls. It's a fight between our flesh, which is the mind, and the spirit, which is our soul. The flesh lust against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh. We will encounter many things in life as we mature from children to adults. Some encounters can be spiritual, physical, mentally, or even financial. As we go through life, we make all kinds of choices and decisions. We need to make sure that we stop and think about what the choice or decisions are about and how it will affect our future. First and foremost, we need to ask God to help us make the right choice or decision. The choices and decisions in life will be the way our life will turn out. This was my

"God Signs" truly is the Bible in a nutshell. Rich, descriptive scriptures of the Ampli fi ed Bible are connected with narrative to form a mosaic depicting God's revealed purpose in creating the universe. God has given us the Bible so we will know why we are here, and how we fit into the overall scheme of His design. Didn't He know that Adam and Eve would go astray and produce a world fi lled with pain, violence and suffering? How could He have been motivated by love e name of Jesus Christ is exalted as "God Signs" underscores the Bible's answers to these questions. An allegorical description of the plan of salvation is included in the introduction. The chapters that follow discuss God's purpose in creation and the promises He has made to mankind and to the individual. If God's promises are enough, why did He give Abraham a promise and an oath? What must one do to inherit the ful fi llment of God's promises? The answers as revealed in the lives of Abraham, Moses and others are discussed. These answers are then supported in detail by unfolding the prophetic mysteries of the mandatory ancient Hebrew feasts and their relationship to the examples and commandments of Jesus Christ. The reader is challenged to cooperate with Jehovah God, and thus receive the intended eternal inheritance.

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc. Grewe states he was afraid of dying, so he became a hospice chaplain. He figured if he made friends with Death at a safe distance he would get used to the idea. For the past nine years he's had the privilege to journey with more than a thousand folks who have gone on to the other side. He shares their stories here, in The Awful Grace of God: What the Dying Have Taught Me About Living. Nazarene Commentary iUniverse This work is written with a law enforcement officer's investigative mindset and from the perspective of a prisoner. I discovered through a survey of Christian bookstores that no books were exclusively on or about repentance, but most only touched on the topic. The only author who had anything to say about repentance beyond a mere mention was Charles G. Finney in Finney's Systematic Theology. This 600-page work transformed my thinking and influenced my investigation. This book discusses spiritual leadership without bashing any spiritual leader. It points out carnality without castigating any particular ministry or denomination. Hundreds of illustrations will familiarize the reader with revelations about repentance and carnality. These illustrations, like parables, contain revolutionary truths that are true to Scripture, reason, and life, so that Repentance: The Doctrine of God may become one harmonious revelation! Warning : As you read this book, you will encounter deep-seated carnality residing within the blackened depths of your soul, and it will not want to be exposed! But take heart? Almighty God will accompany you on this journey for the complete regeneration of your soul. Nam H Nguyen This book, "Unpack the Luggage Honey! Looks Like This Construction is Bigger Than I Expected" is the second volume in a series on the topic of the Lord constructing the perfect house-that is, completing us just the way that He intended us to be. Looking at this topic from a different perspective, it would be like possessing a suitcase that has been packed without any thought being put into it. It must be unpacked and then repacked accordingly. With these two examples, a house being built correctly or the contents of our luggage suitably packed, both projects must be completed in a way that best serves the intentions of the architect or the needs of the traveler going on a journey for the builder. We can be assured that if we co-labor with Christ, freely allowing the Holy Spirit to lead, strengthen, teach, and identify anything that hampers our "holy construction," our endeavors will not be in vain and will result in fruitfulness that brings both glory and honor to our heavenly Father (Galatians 6:9). Those who spend time with God and His Word and His Spirit, and who dwell in His presence and commune with Him and develop a personal relationship with Him, become transformed in the process and thus are better informed, equipped and empowered to attract, steward and exercise influence in the 7 Mountains of Culture (Arts & Entertainment, Business & Economy, Education, Family, Government & Law, Media, and Religion). That is the basic premise and thesis of this book. Moreover, I assert that such transformation is not only possible for disciples of Christ, but, rather, it is imperative and essential to successfully fulfill our divine assignments, callings and destinies. Several places in Scripture such as Micah 4:1 and Isaiah 2:2 mention "the mountain of the Lord" or "the mountain of the house of the Lord," that is above all the other mountains, and is the chief mountain, depending on the particular translation used. This phrase refers to the place of God's abode, or heaven, and for our purposes here, I refer to it as the 8th Mountain. Mountains in Scripture refer to kingdoms, authority, rule and dominion. The 8th Mountain is calling your name. You've read about what awaits you, and what lies ahead on this trek to the spiritual summit. You can think of this book as your mountaineering school curriculum and training manual for the 8th Mountain, to educate, train and prepare you for climbing, and reaching the summit, of the highest peak in the universe. It teaches you survival skills, how to thrive and be successful, how to work as a team, how to ascend and descend, how to avoid or minimize danger, what gear and supplies to take, how to monitor changing weather conditions, and how to save your life and protect yourself and those around you in the harsh climate, adverse conditions, and unforgiving environment of the 7 Mountains of Culture. Just as Mount Everest is the highest point on earth, the 8th Mountain - the Mountain of the Lord - is the highest point in the universe, and is heaven itself. The old saying, "It's lonely at the top" doesn't apply here. There's no reason to be lonely on the 8th Mountain, and lots of reasons to be fulfilled and satisfied - full of joy and peace and love - and there's a whole community of fellow climbers for you to meet and get to know. Some are more experienced than others, and are at different levels of skill and knowledge and physical and spiritual conditioning, but we're all still learning and growing, and are on a journey that will last for a lifetime, and an eternity. We hope that you will join us, and we invite you to do so.

the love of God

reaching out to us through the direct, personal, down-to-earth style of a heart that has been tested through both failure and success, and found to be true. We must stay focused on God, however difficult the test - whether it is losing a beloved husband to Alzheimer ' s disease or a son to the ravages of AIDS. We must trust in God to become the anchor that enables us to survive the storms. Come Walk with Me to Glory offers an opportunity to see the spiritual life through someone else ' s eyes and to grow through their experiences and their consequences without having to live them. KIRKUS Review - Intensely personal spiritual memoir and testimony.... The author has uniquely structured this work to provide instruction, introspection and confession, with quality storytelling woven throughout...Matlock calls upon Christians to be bold, unafraid and intentional about living their faith. " Anybody can be a child of God, but you have to want to be a servant. " Through such intentional living, God provides opportunity, strength and direction. Matlock ' s writing is clear and approachable, and her style is personable and self-effacing ... It is homey and from the heart...Quiltlike gathering of memories and reflections from a faithful life.
