Like Paul, these were also the words of Brother Somebody, whose life also was spent in service and devotion to Christ, and the church. We give thanks and praise to God Almighty, for this servant of God.

To Live Is Christ, To Die Is Gain Sermon by Hans Krause ...

To live is to be rich and to die is to not be able to take my possessions with me.

To live is to have every single longing fulfilled and to die is to give up my dreams. None of these things that we live for, apart from Christ, will last. Jesus is everlasting, and He is life itself.

Philippians 1:21 NIV - For to me, to live is Christ and to ...

No more and no less than a matter of life and death: "To live is Christ, to die is gain." The apostle Paul is dead serious—forgive me the expression—as he thinks aloud about the implications of going on to live or having to die soon. It sounds as if he is given the choice between the two—as if he is allowed to decide about his life.

Answer: Philippians 1:21 says, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." Most people focus on the second part of the verse, "to die is gain," and contemplate the joys of heaven. But we should not overlook what comes before. The importance of the phrase "to live is Christ" cannot be overstated. In all honesty, this phrase should be central to every Christian's life.

lyrics. For me to live is Christ to die is gain. For Jesus knows my pain and suffering. If I am blessed to die. I'll be at home with Christ. For me to live is Christ to die is gain. Many things are given me to cherish in this life. I am counting each and everything a loss compared to Christ. To know and serve the Lord.

What does it mean that "to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21 ...

And the other one is "and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:20–21). So, "to live is Christ and to die is gain" are two ways of Paul's magnifying Christ with his body. So what we want to know is how is Christ magnified in Paul's life, because that's what he's aiming at in this text.

To Live Is Christ – Gospel Choruses & Songs

To live is Christ, to die is gain—this is the message of the letter. Therefore, our lives should be lived to Him, through Him, for Him, with Him, about Him— everything should be about Jesus.

August 2, 2019 by Stephen Altrogge. If I had to choose a single verse to sum up the Christian life, it might be Philippians 1:21, which says, “ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. “. This verse, which has been tattooed on many arms, been the subject of many books, and had many sermons preached about it, is an absolutely glorious verse. It captures the sweet essence of what it means to follow Christ and the glorious future that awaits us.
