Whenever God did something amazing or a miracle in the lives of His people, He told them to build an altar of twelve large stones to remember His gift to them. However, it is also for their children to ask what it is for, so they could tell them about the faithfulness of their God. When I asked the Lord what He wanted me to name this book He put strongly in my heart "Altars of Remembrance" to tell all the wonderful ways He guides and protects those who are His. Now with her second book "MORE Altars of Remembrance" it continues with the unbelievable love and faithfulness of this great God. Hannah has started a third book and looks forward to what the Lord will put in that one.

In a world where everything is ruled by Snapchat, Facebook, Instagram, etc., our mother is a Beatles CD, lost in the shuffle. It's important that we sit down with her or just pick up the phone say hello and take time to listen and connect with her. And even if she is on social media, it's important to connect with her offline. It's time that we show her we care. Our kind words and gestures go a long way. Mothers share a truly special bond with their children, one that deserves its very own kind of keepsake. Making a memory book is a beautiful way to document family history and celebrate life experiences with your mother. Whether we are passing down family history in a parent's book for grandchildren or helping our family make a book for our parents, we will end up with a cherished gift perfect for any occasion and create memories to last a lifetime This type of memory journal lets us capture decades of family history in an heirloom-worthy book while encouraging family members to connect and interact in the process.
