I wrote Transcending CSS: The Fine Art of Web design, way back in 2006. As I explained, writing my first book was a challenge, personally and professionally. In the third part of Transcending CSS, I discussed grid design and layout inspiration from magazines and newspapers. It's a topic I returned to again and again.

Earlier this year, New Riders gave me back the publishing rights to my first book, Transcending CSS: The Fine Art of Web Design. I'd originally intended to post a PDF of the original book online, but the terms of my contract meant that I couldn't simply give away a copy of the book New Riders had produced. I needed a new plan.
