Part memoir and part philosophical look at why we travel, filled with stories of Matt Kepnes' adventures abroad, an exploration of wanderlust and what it truly means to be a nomad. New York Times bestselling author of How to Travel the World on $50 a Day, Matthew Kepnes knows what it feels like to get the travel bug. After meeting some travelers on a trip to Thailand in 2005, he realized that living life meant more than simply meeting society's traditional milestones. Over 500,000 miles, 1,000 hostels, and 90 different countries later, Matt has compiled his favorite stories, experiences, and insights into this travel manifesto. Filled with the color and perspective that only hindsight and self-reflection can offer, these stories get to the real questions at the heart of wanderlust. Travel questions that transcend the basic "how-to," and plumb the depths of what drives us to travel — and what extended travel around the world can teach us about life, ourselves, and our place in the world. Ten Years a Nomad is a heartfelt comprehension of the insatiable craving for travel, unraveling the authenticity of being a vagabond, not for months but for a fulfilling decade.

Travel Hacks and Tips for Experienced Travelers: Travel Guide for People Who Think They Know Everything about Traveling + Best International Travel Sites Review and Infographic Travel Checklist A&C Black

Travel Hacking is a term that's been thrown around a million times over. With so much information available online, you're basically given a hundred different concepts, but no real direction. This book aims to change that. Combining technical wisdom with real-world, achievable action steps, I'll give you the nuts and bolts of travel hacking: the methods, steps and resources I used to get the absolute best travel experiences available, with the least amount of money possible. Here's what you'll learn: How to properly set a travel goal and determine the miles you need for your dream trip How airline alliances work and which cards to sign up for Strategies on how to meet the minimum spend and rack up your mileage How to track your miles efficiently And ultimately, how to redeem your miles for free or upgraded flights, cheap transportation and hotel stays Do you: Want to jump into travel hacking with a clear and simple plan in place? Want to start without having to spend hours on research and weighing the countless options available? Want to know how to lay the foundation for earning miles, racking up your mileage, and redeeming those miles to fund free or very low-cost trips? This is the blueprint you've been waiting for. Because you go online and see it every day: average, working class people who are able to see their travel dreams come to life. It could be your co-worker who just filed a leave to see the Big 5 in Africa, or your neighborhood Instagrammer who seems to be traversing one country after another. You'd love to do the same - only you don't have the money to do so. And money, in fact, is the biggest factor that comes between most people and their travel goals. My name is Sebastian Ritter, and like you, I don't have lots of it either. I've travelled to 15 countries, seen 5 of 7 continents, using airline miles almost entirely. I removed money from the equation and used my know-how in travel hacking to be able to travel wherever I want, whenever I want, and as frequently as I do. And I want to show you that you can do it, too. There are millions of sources online on Travel Hacking, and it can be confusing with all those flight alliances, rewards programs, credit cards and promotions involved. I created this resource to keep you from having to visit a million websites and go through a hundred different concepts. Here, I provide the nuts and bolts of travel hacking - discussing in clear detail the exact steps, methods and resources that you need to earn hundreds of thousands of miles, fly first class, and get a free stay in a hotel suite. And you don't even need to travel a lot to do so, as it's possible to earn your miles right from the comfort of your own home. If you're new to travel hacking, or have simply given up because of the lack of a solid resource on the subject, this is the blueprint you've been waiting for. So let's get started! Sincerely,Sebastian Ritter (Bitcoin: The Ultimate Guide to the World of Bitcoin) Grab this GREAT physical book now at a limited time discounted price! The world has always run on traditional fiat currencies, which have been backed and controlled by governments. The government can inflate or deflate the price of these currencies without any democratic involvement. This also meant a high degree of regulation and government scrutiny that led to manipulation, but then came Bitcoin.Bitcoin is a decentralized virtual currency that is not controlled by anyone, and that doesn't require a third-party intervention. It was created by a figure known as Satoshi Nakamoto in 2008. His identity is still unknown, and he vanished from the online world a few years after introducing the world to the revolutionary technology of Bitcoin.Bitcoin's value has increased over the years because of its popularity, and many people have made a lot of money from it. No central figure controls Bitcoin, but it's regulated by a peer-to-peer network that provides it with a functional base without the need of an external figure. Bitcoin is a democratic currency because it can't be influenced or manipulated by a few wealthy people for their gains and interests.Most people have heard about Bitcoin and cryptocurrencies, but there is a lot of mystery that surrounds this terminology. Therefore most people are hesitant about investing in this lucrative currency. Bitcoin has almost become a buzzword in the last few years, thanks to its growing popularity. But the important question is, how does Bitcoin function? Is it a sound investment opportunity? How can you buy Bitcoin?If you want the answer to these questions, then this is the book that you need. Bitcoin is changing the world, and it is entirely possible that in the next twenty years, it might become the currency that everyone in the world uses. Some governments, like that of Japan and Switzerland, are openly embracing it while others are strictly against its use. Bitcoin is growing every day, and those who are in the game are already making thousands of dollars from it. So, if you want to understand what the hype is all about it, you have found the right book. Order your copy of this fantastic book today!

Rediscovering Travel: A Guide for the Globally Curious Perigee Books

A revolutionary philosophy for rookie and veteran travelers alike, Rediscovering Travel “gets to the heart of why we travel” (Matt Kepnes, “Nomadic Matt”). Having captivated millions during his tenure as the New York Times’s “Frugal Traveler,” Seth Kugel is one of our most internationally beloved travel writers. With the initial publication of Rediscovering Travel, he took the corporate modern travel industry to task, determined to reignite an age- old sense of adventure that has virtually been vanquished by the spontaneity- obliterating likes of Google Maps, TripAdvisor, and Starwood points. Now in travel- friendly paperback, this “funny, inspiring and well- crafted” companion (Associated Press) reveals how to make the most of new apps and other digital technologies without being shackled to them. Writing for the tight- belted tourists and the fi rst- class fl yer, the eager student and the comfort- seeking retiree, Kugel shows all readers “not only where to look, but how” (Samantha Brown), and promises that we too can rediscover the joy of discovery. “Travel is not about the destination but the experience. . . . That's what makes [it] so appealing, so addictive, and that's what makes Rediscovering Travel so necessary." — Peter Greenberg Unbored is the book every modern child needs. Brilliantly walking the line between cool and constructive, it's crammed with activities that are not only fun and doable but that also get kids standing on their own two feet. If you're a kid, you can: -- Build a tipi or an igloo -- Learn to knit -- Take stuff apart and fix it -- Find out how to be constructively critical -- Film a stop-action movie or edit your own music -- Do parkour like James Bond -- Make a little house for a mouse from lollipop sticks -- Be independent! Catch a bus solo or cook yourself lunch -- Make a fake exhaust for your bike so it sounds like you're revving up a motorcycle -- Design a board game -- Go camping (or glamping) -- Plan a road trip -- Get proactive and support the causes you care about -- Develop your taste and decorate your own room -- Make a rocket from a coke bottle -- Play farting games There are gross facts and fascinating stories, reports on what stuff is like (home schooling, working in an office...), Q&As with inspiring grown-ups, extracts from classic novels, lists of useful resources and best ever lists like the top clean rap songs, stop-motion movies or books about rebellion. Just as kids begin to disappear into their screens, here is a book that encourages them to use those tech skills to be creative, try new things and change the world. And it gets parents to join in. Unbored is fully illustrated, easy to use and appealing to young and old, girl and boy. Parents will be comforted by its anti-perfectionist spirit and humour. Kids will just think it's brilliant.
