Holmwood. Under the Hawthorn Tree is what is known in the trade as a 'publishing phenomenon' because of its bestseller status in China.
Defying expectations, because it had already been published for free on the author's blog, it generated massive sales, which then became a catalyst for bestsellerdom in the rest of the world.

Under the Hawthorn Tree was a very moving, eye opening read of life under Mo in China. The story of a young Chinese girl as she tries to serve her country, her family and the love of her young life. The inexperience combined with the honesty and the sadness in her life is very touching. A very good look at life in China.
