Overview and Outcomes: This is a two-week planning sequence using Until I Met Dudley by Roger McGough and Chris Riddell. Children write their own explanation texts for everyday objects, inventing their own imaginary responses to the question of how they work, before researching and describing them properly. They also write letters to a fictional 'Dudley' character asking for his help to get to the bottom of some more complicated items.

We are using the book 'Until I met Dudley' by Roger McGough and Chris Riddell. The girl in the book thought that toast was made in a cellar beneath the kitchen by toast gnomes using pulleys and levers and a fire-breathing dragon! But Dudley the dog was able to explain to her how toasters really work. It was very interesting.

Following this, we wrote our own explanation texts about Chris Riddell's daft illustrations, and you can read one below.
