What about documentation? Documentation is currently pretty sparse. The best we can do right now is to ask users to infer the documentation from the C++ API. For example, the Python has an object called MultiUSRP which is an equivalent of the C++ multi_usrp API. The methods on both classes are the same, and take the same arguments. FAQ Usrp2 Documentation - TruyenYY

The USRP2 was developed after the USRP and was first made available in September 2008. It has reached end of life and has been replaced by the USRP N200 and USRP N210. The USRP2 was not intended to replace the original USRP, which continued to be sold in parallel to the USRP2. This first generation USRP is also no longer available publicly.
