Valor The Faithful And Fallen

I gave huge praises to Malice, it was impressive but Valor, the 2nd book in John Gwynne's debut series is incredibly better from its predecessor. I included both Malice and Valor in my all time favorite list, that's 2 out of 4 already and judging from the quality progression in the series I strongly believe the other half of The Faithful And the Fallen series, Ruin & Wrath will follow that ...

Elyon, the maker of all, and Asroth, his great enemy, leading his host of the Fallen. Corban knew the tales well enough, of Asroth's corruption of the first giants and men, the War of Treasures that followed, and then the Scourging. Until now he'd thought they were little more than faery stories told to keep children in their cots at night.
