Linda Howard used to be one of my favorite authors but I think the last one I enjoyed was Open Season, and I stopped buying her books a couple years ago. I can still recall key scenes and names of characters in some of her single titles from before the switch to hardbacks: *After the Night, Now

Heart of Fire .

This novel is highly readable and typical Linda Howard. It breezed along with her stock hero and heroine with all their strengths and weaknesses intact.
There is plenty of conflict between them as well as (of Course) very hot instant sexual attraction.
