The subtitle of this book says it all: Be smarter than your lawyer and venture capitalist. I don't know if that's true, as I'm neither, but this was an *extremely* helpful book to weed through all the confusing concepts and jargon surrounding venture capital. I plan to keep it around as a reference.

Contents

Venture Deals is a must-read for any entrepreneur thinking about starting, or currently running, a venture-backed company. It might take you a bit longer to read (it took me several months which is A LOT higher than the average time it takes me to read a book), that most business books, because of the level of detail you will find.
