The Vitamix 5000 might be an older model, it still works as if it was released yesterday! That is an amazing achievement of a blender.
Especially when you consider that most blenders tend to give up after 1-2 years.

I bought my Vitamix 5000 blender and two tops (one for general use and one for bread-making) a decade ago and have used it more or less regularly (1-3 times each week) most of those years. I use it for vegetable smoothies and soups as part of a vegan lifestyle I began after a health crisis all those years ago.
