Bob Tasca is, quite simply, the world's most effective practitioner of customer satisfaction. His accomplishments are astounding. His small Ford dealership is consistently among the world's best in sales volume, and industry executives from all over often visit in order to learn from his operation. Though he sells a generic product, Tasca has at times achieved the unheard-of feat of capturing 24 percent of his metro market, and he regularly sees 65 percent of his customers return -- triple the loyalty rate of his competitors. In You Will Be Satisfied, he reveals how anyone, whether shoe salesman, software company middle manager or bookstore owner, can drive customer loyalty to dizzying heights. In the book's short, punchy chapters, real-life anecdotes and bulleted lessons, readers will find the knowledge and tools they need to send their sales soaring.

Achieving World Leadership in Motorsports Butterworth-Heinemann
This comprehensive overview of chassis technology presents an up-to-date picture for vehicle construction and design engineers in education and industry. The book acts as an introduction to the engineering design of the automobile's fundamental mechanical systems. Clear text and first class diagrams are used to relate basic engineering principles to the particular requirements of the chassis. In addition, the 2nd edition of 'The Automotive Chassis' has a new author team and has been completely updated to include new technology in total vehicle and suspension design, including platform concept and four-wheel drive technology.

I think it's interesting though. I think it's interesting that in some sense that that's all happiness is, for surely if everyone were the freckle in the tar then there would be no tar-then we would all wish to be the tar bit in the freckles. If everyone were pyscho-drunk-cut-all-their-fingers-off-with-a-steak-knife-f*cked-up at the bar, then who in the f*ck would really think it interesting to put such a story in the news? If everyone wore a smile and you never saw even one cloud in the wink of all your days then who in the f*ck would be relieved by another? And it's fun to twist and spit on the plot-fun to run the f*cking lawn mower through the fence and see how far it goes-fun to take your mattress outside and jump on it naked in the middle of the street-but oh my oh my if we didn't make each other feel like a night cry in the murmur then we would have no reason to murder each other and oh my oh my what a pleasure it is to murder each other-what a pleasure it is for me to come home and cry-to stop crying and stop being such a pussy-to not stop stopping being such a pussy and fill-up a red-container with Mario's juice and burn Uber to my feet-make them feel like me-make them lose the one-moment that feels to be the one that lasts-make them unmake them.
