I thought Weber's War
God books were brilliant, funny, and
very thought provoking. That was until this book.

Weber's Harrington
books tended to
ramble and waffle,
which put me off
after the third book,
and I thought that the War God series
had escaped that tendency. Until War Maid's Choice that is.
