Defeatism - Wikipedia

A war of annihilation (German: Vernichtungskrieg) or war of extermination is a type of war in which the goal is the complete annihilation of a state, a people or an ethnic minority through genocide or through the destruction of their livelihood. The goal can be outward-directed or inward, against elements of one's own population. The goal is not like other types of warfare, the recognition of ...

Verse 12. - For we wrestle not against flesh and blood.
Our conflict is not with men, here denoted by "flesh and blood," which is usually a symbol of weakness, therefore denoting that our opponents are not weak mortals, but powers of a far more formidable order. But against

The second sense of "culture war" comes from sociologist James Davison Hunter's 1991 book Culture Wars, published the year before Buchanan's speech. According to Hunter's influential thesis, Americans hold a wide range of moral commitments, but these get framed in public discourse as one epic struggle between two competing worldviews.
