Welcome To Last Chance by Hope Ramsay is a book with good and bad elements. The good- the main characters, Jane and Clay, are definitely flawed and confused. I think this makes them more believable and relatable.

Welcome to Last Chance - Hope Ramsay

Welcome to Last Chance was an easy book to read and get lost in. The characters are believable and engaging. The characters are believable and engaging. I found myself rooting for Lainie, hoping that she could get herself turned around and away from the evil influences that seemed to predominate her life before the story began.

Welcome to Last Chance by Cathleen Armstrong

Welcome to Last Chance by Cathleen Armstrong is a wonderfully quick read, but the quick pacing shouldn ’ t fool anyone – it was quick for me because I was sucked into Lainie ’ s story and how she came to love her time spent in Last Chance, New Mexico.While I found the pacing to be quick and the story very easy to read, there is certainly plenty of depth in these pages.
