I did not have much time and what time I did have I was usually too tired to do anything. It was only when I would schedule what I was going to do the next time I set down at the computer did I start to make progress. I still do that today. 3. I had to make sure that each day I did something that had the potential of making me money.

Either the present or the past tense of BE is correct, although the past tense form is much more common. A: What I did was/is that I took it out of the box. Actually, the most common way of expressing this idea is to use the bare infinitive in the complement, not a that-clause: " " What I did was/is take it out of the box " " What I did is take it out of the box Other versions are " " what ...

"I Did What I Did for Maria" is a song recorded by English singer Tony Christie. It was written and produced by Mitch Murray and Peter Callander, who were also responsible for Christie's "Las Vegas" and "Avenues and Alleyways". The song is about a widower who, on the eve of his execution, recalls how he remorselessly avenged his dead wife, hence the title.

I did have an aptitude for it in school, though I never felt like I was the best at it – I tended to compare myself to people who were better than me. After high school, I did a diploma of fine art at Whitecliffe College of Art in Auckland.

What I Did For A
What I Did by Christopher Wakling is a truly astonishing novel—the chronicle of a family crisis that is equal parts hilarity, poignancy, and horror, told in the singular voice of a most precocious youngster.
