Modern culture's worship of "how-to" pragmatism has turned us into instruments of efficiency and commerce—but we're doing more and more about things that mean less and less. We constantly ask "how?" and still struggle to find purpose and act on what matters. Instead of acting on what we know to be of importance, we wait for bosses to change, we seek the latest fad, we invest in one more degree. Asking how keeps us safe—instead of being led by our hearts into uncharted territory, we keep our heads down and stick to the rules. But we are gaining the world and losing our souls. Peter Block puts the "how-to" craze in perspective and presents a guide to the difficult and life-granting journey of bringing what we know is of personal value into an indifferent or even hostile corporate and cultural landscape. He raises our awareness of the trade-offs we've made in the name of practicality and expediency, and offers hope for a way of life in which we're motivated not by what "works," but by the things that truly matter in life—idealism, intimacy, depth and engagement.

There have been many books written about the Theory of Evolution. Probably, your first thought here is that this is just one more book on the subject. And you are right! However, this one has a different twist to it. This one asks questions about the subject matter where answers have not been forthcoming. Taking a layman's approach to addressing the subject matter, the author writes as though the reader is bringing nothing to this reading experience except a curiosity. This book was not written for those of the scientific community, per se. There are quite a few questions that the author feels stand in the way of acceptance of the Theory, and remain unanswered. These are brought to the forefront, amid informative background knowledge of life and its beginning, and of necessity, an opposing view. That, of course, would be "Intelligent Design". Intriguing topics addressed by others are presented, such as the Big Bang beginning of the Universe, or the discovery of a particle found to exist that's smaller, even, than the parts of an atom i.e., smaller than the proton, the neutron, even the electron. Dark Energy, and its possible catastrophic results on the Universe are briefly discussed, as well as the information stored in DNA in all living cells, which is the design criteria for life. So you see the discussions are made purposely broad to offer the reader the necessary background for his better understanding of the subject matter.

Immanuel Kant was one of the most influential philosophers in the whole of Europe, who changed Western thought with his examinations of reason and the nature of reality. In these writings he investigates human progress, civilization, morality and why, to be truly enlightened, we must all have the freedom and courage to use our own intellect. Throughout history, some books have changed the world. They have transformed the way we see ourselves - and each other. They have inspired debate, dissent, war and revolution. They have enlightened, outraged, provoked and comforted. They have enriched lives - and destroyed them. Now Penguin brings you the works of the great thinkers, pioneers, radicals and visionaries whose ideas shook civilization and helped make us who we are.

In If Jesus Is the Answer, What Is the Question?, Dr. Genova reflects on six important questions, each posed by God to his people in the Hebrew scriptures. God asks these questions because we need to examine our own experiences and to use our reason to gain an improved understanding of God, ourselves, our community, and our interrelationships. The questions are: Who is your Lord? Who are you? What do you need? Do you understand? What will God do? How will you respond? Seek each question and the dialogue with God recounted in the Old Testament. Continue into the Gospels as Jesus asks these same questions. As Jesus said, You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life (John 5: 39-40).
