Things Good Mothers Do | Motherhood and More

This book does a beautiful job of allowing us to examine what it is mothers--especially stay-at-home mothers--do all day, and, more than that, to name and honor those things. It can be very easy to feel like you're "not getting anything done," when, in fact, you are working hard all day at arguably the most important job there is!

What Mothers Do Quotes by Naomi Stadlen

Good mothers never yell at their children. Good mothers yell at their children and then apologize for losing their patience. Good mothers yell at their children and then don't apologize because occasionally kids need to know they've crossed a line, dammit. Good mothers know when they need a break and take one. Good mothers know when they need a break, but can't always take one.
