When the Mob Ran Vegas by Steve Fischer (2005) I bought this book at the airport in LV and thought it was great. Quirky, particularly as I didn't realise it is actually taken from a series of separate articles/ads on e-bay (which explains some of the repetition), but its a great book and covers a huge amount of history.

Book Review: When the Mob Ran Vegas - Living Las Vegas

When The Mob Ran Vegas. On September 7, 1963, during a performance at the Sands Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Dean Martin joked " Right now, ladies and gentlemen, somewhere backstage, Frank Sinatra is punching a dealer right in the mouth. " . Little did Martin know that four years later, Sinatra actually would start a fight with a Sands pit boss over revoked casino credit — only, in the end, it was Sinatra who received the pop to the mouth.
