In this e-book, Denise Jaden explores the stages and outlets of grief and suggests effective ways to implement them into your fiction to create more interesting characters and a more engaging plot. With key points and a variety of exercises, some topics of this book include: how grief affects different age groups and personalities, spiritual matters, and a five-step plan to ensure a good character arc. "Writing With A Heavy Heart" absolutely nails the grieving process. I love the exercises included, because, to her he doesn't love her me, they make the whole thing a tangible help in applying it to a work in progress." Janet Gurtler, author of If I Tell and Who I Kissed

Truth About Us Grand Central Publishing
A timely and heartfelt collection of essays inspired by the #MeToo movement, edited by acclaimed author Janet Gurtler. Featuring Beth

Revis, Mackenzi Lee, Ellen Hopkins, Sandra Mitchell, Jennifer Brown, Cheryl Rainfield and many more. When #MeToo went viral, Janet Gurtler was among the millions of people who began to reflect on her past experiences. Things she had reluctantly accepted—male classmates groping her at recess, harassment at work—came back to her in startling clarity. She needed teens to know what she had not: that no young person should be subject to sexual assault, or made to feel unsafe, less than or degraded. You Too? was born out of that need. By turns thoughtful and explosive, these personal stories encompass a wide range of experiences and serve as a reminder to readers that they, too, have a voice worthy of being heard—and that only by listening and working together can we create change.

No Place Penguin

I'm not your average hero. I actually wasn't your average anything. Just a poor guy working an after-school job at a South Beach shoe repair shop to help his mom make ends meet. But a little magic changed it all. It all started with a curse. And a frognapping. And one hot-looking princess, who asked me to lead a rescue mission. There wasn't a fairy godmother or any of that.

And even though I fell in love along the way, what happened to me is unlike any fairy tale I've ever heard. Before I knew it, I was spying with a flock of enchanted swans, talking (yes, talking!) to a fox named Todd, and nearly trampled by giants in the Everglades. Don't believe me? I didn't believe it either. But you'll see. Because I knew it all was true, the second I got cloaked.
