This week's review: WHOLE LATTE LIFE by Joanne DeMaio This perfect for the beach book begs the question: If you could go back and redo all of the "what ifs" in your life, would you do everything the same? What if you married the other guy? What if you took the other job? What if you didn't have children? What if you were there when your Mother needed you the most instead not having ...

Whole Latte Life by Joanne Demaio - Books-A-Million

I loved everything about Whole Latte Life! This novel is so much more than a romance or beach read --it has depth, meaning, character, charm, and realistic life issues. Joanne DeMaio has a talent for describing every emotion, scent, and feeling of a room or setting, so it draws you into the world of the character.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Whole Latte Life

Debut author DeMaio sketches the mid-life crisis of a 40-year-old woman and shows that turmoil can lurk behind even the most serene of façades. Sara Beth Riley is a stereotypical suburban mom with a financially successful and fairly decent husband, three good kids, a nice house, great friends and enviable health.
