"Why did the chicken cross the road?" is a common riddle joke, with the answer being "To get to the other side". It is an example of anti-humor, in that the curious setup of the joke leads the listener to expect a traditional punchline, but they are instead given a simple statement of fact. However, it also is a reference to suicide, as "the other side" could be interpreted as crossing over to the afterlife. "Why did the chicken cross the road?" has become iconic as an exemplary generic joke to
