Johanna Lindsey works are an art of perfection which leaves the readers wrapped in the world of romance and fantasy. The use of vivid explanation indulges the reader into the events taking place in the book from the very beginning to the last page. She is truly on of the best writers of her time. —

What did cruisers even DO in World War II? - We Are The Mighty

Other powers in World War II operated cruisers, too. HIJMS Atago served as a flagship in several engagements, including her last one at Leyte Gulf. (Imperial Japanese Navy) With the end of World War II, cruisers began to fade away, especially as guided missiles emerged and submarines became more of a threat.
