A brave mouse, a covetous rat, a wishful serving girl, and a princess named Pea come together in Kate DiCamillo's Newbery Medal – winning tale.

Welcome to the story of Despereaux Tilling, a mouse who is in love with music, stories, and a princess named Pea. It is also the story of a rat called Roscuro, who lives in the darkness and covets a world filled with light. And it is the story of Miggery Sow, a slow-witted serving girl who harbors a simple, impossible wish. These three characters are about to embark on a journey that will lead them down into a horrible dungeon, up into a glittering castle, and, ultimately, into each other's lives. What happens then? As Kate DiCamillo would say: Reader, it is your destiny to find out. With black-and-white illustrations and a

"Women in American History: Volume Two" is brought to you by Reading Through History. This is a collaborative effort of two classroom teachers with more than forty years of teaching experience at the secondary level. It includes 196

pages of student activities related to many of the significant women in modern American history. The volume also features lessons related to some of the important events which occurred during the latter 20th Century in relation to women's rights. The workbook includes forty-six lessons and an answer key for each activity. This is the go-to resource for any U.S. History teacher, World History teacher, or Women's History teacher in need of information or student activities related to the history of women in America. This resource manual is sure to be a perfect fit for any classroom, from 5th Grade up through seniors. There are 46 reading lessons in all, and each has several pages of student activities to accompany the reading, including multiple choice questions, guided reading activities, vocabulary exercises, and student response essay questions. This teacher's manual includes lessons about early female elected officials such as "Ma" Ferguson, Nellie Tayloe Ross, and Jeanette Rankin. Significant cabinet members such as Frances Perkins, Madeleine Albright, and Hillary Clinton are also included. There are also lessons about important authors such as Harriet Beecher Stowe, Louisa May Alcott, Laura Ingalls Wilder, Margaret Mitchell, Ayn Rand, as well as poets Emily Dickinson, Sylvia Plath, and Maya Angelou. This volume also includes biographies about prominent First Ladies Eleanor Roosevelt, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Nancy Reagan, and Michelle Obama. Lessons about Katharine Hepburn, Elizabeth Taylor, Josephine Baker, and Marilyn Monroe bring a spotlight to the world of entertainment. Famous athletes like Babe Didrikson Zaharias, Billie Jean King, and Nancy Lieberman are also included. There are also lessons about the Equal Rights Amendment, the National Organization of Women, Title IX and much more! (Please note that this is "Volume Two". For lessons about the Women's Suffrage Movement and the passage of the 19th Amendment, please see "Volume One"). A History of the World Teacher Created Materials 'A roaring tale ... remains as vivid and exciting today as it was on publication in 1697' Guardian The pirate and adventurer William Dampier circumnavigated the globe three times, and took notes wherever he went. This is his frank, vivid account of his buccaneering sea voyages around the world, from the Caribbean to the Pacific and East Indies. Filled with accounts of raids, escapes, wrecks and storms, it also contains precise observations of people, places, animals and food (including the first English accounts of guacamole, mango chutney and chopsticks). A bestseller on publication, this unique record of the colonial age influenced Robinson Crusoe, Gulliver's Travels and consequently the whole of English literature. Edited with an Introduction by Nicholas Thomas
