WWII officially began on September 1, 1939 and ended on September 2, 1945. World War II, which took place between September 1939 and September 1945, was the bloodiest conflict in human history.

Though no exact casualty count for the war exists, it is thought that up to 85 million people were killed as a direct or indirect result of the conflict.

Answers about World War 2

Along with World War I, World War II was one of the great watersheds of 20th-century geopolitical history. It resulted in the extension of the Soviet Union ' s power to nations of eastern Europe , enabled a communist movement to eventually achieve power in China, and marked the decisive shift of power in the world away from the states of western Europe and toward the United States and the Soviet Union.
