Beauty Meets Beast in San Francisco Accepting employment as a governess after hard times hit her family, medieval scholar Rosalind Hawkins is surprised when she learns that her mysterious employer has no children, no wife, and she is not to meet with him face to face. Instead, her duties are to read to him, through a speaking tube, from ancient manuscripts in obscure, nearly-forgotten dialects. A requirement for the job was skill in translating medieval French, and she now understands the reason for that requirement, and assumes her unseen employer's interest in the descriptions of medieval spells and sorcery is that of an eccentric antiquary. What she does not realize is that his interest is anything but academic. He has a terrible secret and is desperately searching for something that can reverse the effects of the misfired spell which created his predicament. Each "Missing In Action (M.I.A.) Angel" assignment is to be with someone who is willing to give their life in combat to protect or save others. Some just need that additional bit of help to survive, while others need the presence of an "M.I.A. Angel" as they approach death. It's not easy being an "M.I.A. Angel" although it is many times rewarding. The downside is that sometimes there is nothing that can be done to help, other than the assignment knowing that an angel is with them when they die.
