Jupiter's Travels

-Ted Simon's

astonishing 4 year
motorbike journey
around the world

The book that inspired Ewan

McGregor's Long Way Round In the

late 1970s Ted

Simon set off on a Triumph and rode

63,000 miles over
four years through

fifty-four countries
in a journey that

took him around
the world. Through

breakdowns, prison,
war, revolutions,

disasters and a Californian

commune, he

travelled into the depths of fear and
reached the heights
of euphoria. He met
astonishing people
and was treated as a
spy, a welcome
stranger and even a
god. For Simon the trip became a
journey into his own
soul, and for many others - including
bikers Charley
Boorman and Ewan
McGregor - it
provides an
inspiration they will never forget. This classic text, which has informed a
whole genre of
travel writing in the
thirty years since it
was first published,
will never be
bettered for sheer
adventure, passion,
humour and
honesty. Brought up in England by a German mother and

a Romanian father,
Ted Simon found
himself impelled by
an insatiable desire
to explore the world.

It led him to abandon an early
scientific career in favour of journalism, and he has worked for
several newspapers
and magazines on
Fleet Street and elsewhere. Ted Simon is also the author of *Riding
Home* and *The
Gypsy in Me*.
