You Can Run But You Can't Hide by Duane "Dog" Chapman

WHEN YOU DREAM YOU CAN'T RUN. The writer of the book of Hebrews wrote, "Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us." When we dream that we lack the strength or endurance to run, our dreams often speak of the condition of our hearts: for example, that our love toward the Lord has grown slightly (or more) cold.

A Doctor named Potter told a story of a young man who stood at the bar of a court of justice to be sentenced for forgery. The judge had known him from a child, for his father had been a famous legal light and his work on the Law of Trusts was the most exhaustive work on the subject in existence. "Do you remember your father?" asked the judge sternly, "that father whom you have disgraced?"
